

For immediate release on April 20, 2014

The Mirandola Ensemble announces upcoming “Love & Death” concerts featuring the works of John Dowland

(Minneapolis, Minn.) The Mirandola Ensemble today announced three new concert dates for its updated “Love & Death: The Songs of John Dowland” series, taking place this June in the Twin Cities. The concerts will feature the choral group and classical guitarist Benjamin Kunkel performing the popular songs of composer and lutenist John Dowland.

Concert dates, times, and locations are as follows:

Friday, June 6 at 9:00 p.m.
St. Paul’s Episcopal Church-on-the-Hill
1524 Summit Avenue
St. Paul, MN 55105

Saturday, June 7 at 9:00 p.m.
St. Paul’s Episcopal Church
1917 Logan Avenue South
Minneapolis, MN 55403

Friday, June 13 at 8:00 p.m.
The Baroque Room
275 East Fourth Street, Suite #280
St. Paul, MN 55101

The Mirandola Ensemble, established in 2011, is a Minneapolis-based professional choral ensemble dedicated to promoting the highest standards of choral music, the idea of choral music as ‘high art’ in the Western tradition, and the aesthetics of the Renaissance. The ensemble is a 501(c)(3) non-profit arts organization, and was recently selected to serve as the 2014-2015 Artist-in-Residence for Minnesota Public Radio’s Class Notes program. The ensemble’s recently released studio album “Nymphs and Angels” is now available via iTunes, Amazon, and other music services. For more information on The Mirandola Ensemble, please visit www.themirandolaensemble.org.

-

For more information on this announcement, please contact:

Scott Sandersfeld, Artistic Director • (507) 469-8903 • scott@themirandolaensemble.org

Steve Norman, Vice-Chairman, Board of Directors • (612) 756-1719 • info@themirandolaensemble.org